A night photograph of the Sagrada Família in Barcelona, Spain. The building's iconic, spiraling stone facade is illuminated, and its reflection is visible in the water of the Llobregat river. The river flows through the city, with lights from buildings and street lamps reflecting on its surface. In the background, a tall, cylindrical building with a glowing top section is visible against the dark night sky. The overall scene is a mix of architectural grandeur and urban vibrancy.

THE NIGHT WE HAD A GOODBYE PARTY AND
WE HAD A LOT OF FUN....
LAUGHING TILL WE CRIED
IS THE BEST WAY TO CRY.
Manuela

I BRING HOME THE NEED OF SEEING OTHER COUNTRIES. EVEN IF PLANES SCARE ME, I WANT TO EXPLORE AND GO ABROAD. FROM THIS EXPERIENCE I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER THE FEELING OF BEING INTO A BIG WORLD WHERE YOU CAN EXPERIMENT NEW EMOTIONS.

Edmea

Through “St’ART” project we want to stimulate the city to look at itself and at its needs. We want to make people aware of the problems but also to set possible solutions; we intend to suggest an urban renewal through a social awareness campaign involving the whole town, including public administrators and politicians, shopkeepers, students, teachers or simple citizens.
